

ABA LAW PRACTICE DIVISION PRACTICE MADE PERFECT

The ABA Law Practice Division (LP) promotes the business of practicing law: marketing, management, technology, and finance. Our books program, CLE, webinars, magazine, and ABA TECHSHOW—not to mention a network of expert leadership—can help you develop optimal legal services delivery.

LP has curated several management resources to assist managing partners and legal professionals on the path to success. Join the Law Practice Division to enjoy these essential tools for your firm:

PUBLICATIONS WITH PURPOSE:

Law Practice Magazine: You'll receive 6 issues of the award-winning magazine. Each issue contains insightful articles and practical tips on marketing/client development, practice management, legal technology, and finance.

Law Practice Today: Law Practice Today (LPT) is a monthly digital publication bringing you the most current information and trends in the industry by delivering anecdotes from legal professionals.

Law Practice Books: Select books from over 100 titles on topics such as technology, finance, practice management, and more.

DEEP MEMBER DISCOUNTS:

Members receive discounts on meeting registration, in-person events, books, webinars, networking and more, including ABA TECHSHOW and Division meetings.

TONS OF TECH SUPPORT:

Legal Technology Survey Report: The Legal Technology Resource Center's annual Legal Technology Survey Report is recognized as the source for information regarding the use of technology by attorneys in private practice.

Law Technology Today: Law Technology Today (LTT) is the Legal Technology Resource Center's free daily blog that publishes guidance and advice from practicing lawyers, technology professionals, and practice management experts in a wide range of practice settings and backgrounds.

ABA TECHREPORT: The ABA TECHREPORT combines data from the annual Legal Technology Survey Report with expert analysis, observations, and predictions from leaders in the legal technology field.

Take your practice to the next level by joining the ABA Law Practice Division. Access all the resources you need to enhance your skill sets, network with peer legal professionals, and more—right at your fingertips. See how LP could be a benefit to your practice today!